

Boutique Offices

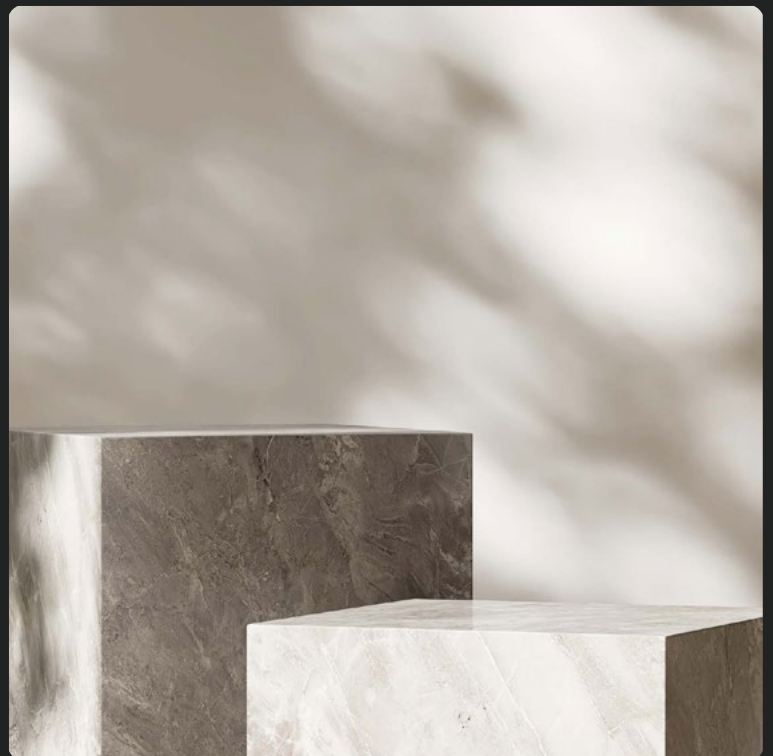

Prestigious office space in a historic setting

The charming old building offers boutique offices for boutique companies that feel at home in the ambience of an old city villa. The exclusive Jägerstraße address contributes to their identity.

Compliance with the latest sustainability standards

As part of the revitalization great care is taken to implement all the measures that fully meet modern standards.

Boutique Offices

Event space for special occasions

Whether board meetings, company celebrations or conferences, the impressive historic event space offers the perfect setting for all occasions. This is a space like no other in Berlin.

Private booth in the unique vaulted cellar

And if you are looking for a place that is snug and private, cozy private booths are available in the vaulted cellar. Converted into a cigar lounge and wine cellar, these rooms are exquisite.
